4. Board Committees: The Board committees, which include Audit, Finance, Investment, Compensation & Benefits, Elections, and Governance will need to be reviewed separately by the full Board at the December meeting.
5. 2026 Committee Priorities and Projects: Ed shared a living document outlining committee priorities and projects for the upcoming year, which EC members/VPs were asked to contribute over the next two weeks to be able to share with the committees at the beginning of the year. Crystie separately circulated a past and future projects list for the history and archives committee. EC members reviewed and discussed the suggested priorities.

Having clearly articulated priorities and projects will enable each committee to focus on strategic initiatives and ensure alignment with the Board, allocated resources and the mission. EC members will share priorities with committees early in the year.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:18 p.m. ET.

Respectfully submitted,
Erika Braun, Secretary
